Remarks on North Korea and an Exchange With Reporters

June 15, 1994

The President. Let me say I’m very pleased to have this opportunity for another meeting with the bipartisan leadership. We will be discussing a number of issues today, but let me mention one in particular, North Korea.

Ambassador Albright will be beginning her discussions today at the United Nations about a sanctions resolution which we proposed which would include phased sanctions designed to deal not only with the actions of the North Koreans to date but as a deterrent to future destructive conduct with regard to the IAEA and the NPT. So we’re going to be very deliberate, very firm. I feel that we are pursuing the proper course at this time.

In addition to that, of course, we’ll be discussing health care, the crime bill, welfare
